The Hambledon/Hambleton Family seems to have become one of the largest landowners in the parish, however the families are of mixed fortune. A copy of the Family Tree in the Butterton History Archives begins with two brothers Thomas and William in the early 1600's. (William is the first of nineteen recorded William's on the Family Tree!) Thomas has two sons- William and Richard (1625-1691). Richard and wife Ellen have three sons- William, Thomas and Bennet. William marries Elizabeth Smith and they have thirteen children. This is the 'interesting generation' as this is where the family fortunes change [INTERNET]

George Hambleton (parochial curate of Butterton) e1580-....
Hambleton, born perhaps about 1580 (? in Staffordshire), was probably a son of Thomas Hambleton (? of Butterton) e1550-.... He was probably only educated to literate grade. He was presumably ordained deacon (? and priest) before 26 Aug 1616 when he was in office as parochial curate of Warslow. He was still in office there in 1620. By 1639 he was in office as parochial curate of Butterton. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister. On 26 Sep 1646 the Committee for plundered ministers granted (the minister here) an augmentation of £20 to his annual salary of £4/10/0. Hambleton was still in office in 1651.2. Hambleton may not have married. No further record has been discovered. [NOTE: The Hambleton family of Butterton - earlier called Hambledon, Homoldon, Homolton and Hamilton - were settled in the village by 1465.]

(1915) 4 On 26 Sep 1646 the committee for plundered ministers found that the minister here had but £4/10/0 pa, so it granted him £20 pa from the rectory of Penkridge, sequestered from Sir Edward Littleton, delinquent, the chapels of Penkridge being first provided for. William Hambleton (parochial curate of Butterton) 1620-1669 D46
Hambleton, born perhaps about 1620 (? in Staffordshire), was probably a son of Thomas Hambleton of Butterton yeoman c1590-.... He was only educated to literate grade. About Jun 1664 he was ordained deacon by Lichfield. By 1665 after probable presentation by John Kelsall c1636-1698 QV qua vicar of Mayfield he was in office as parochial curate of Butterton. In 1665 a man of his name was assessed on 1 hearth at Butterton. Still in office he died, aged about 49, and was buried here (perhaps as requested in the churchyard near the chancel door) on 23 Apr 1669. His will made on 20 Jul 1668 was proved under Lichfield on 15 Oct 1669. His personalty was valued at £46/12/6. His books - which he mentions in his will as being in latin, greek and english - were valued at £1. Hambleton married about 1649 a woman by whom he had 1 son and ?2 daughters.

James Hambleton of Sheen, Staffs e1562-....
(25 Jan 1602) Indented bargain and sale by William Bonsall of Heathcote in Hartington, Derbyshire, yeoman, to James Hambleton, of Sheen, Staffordshire, of one messuage or tenement with appurtenances in Heathcote, in Hartington, with all the buildings, orchards, gardens, courtyards, lands, tenements, meadows, pastures, feedings, woods, under-woods, privileges and 30 acres of land. Appointment by William Bonsall of Humphrey Goodwyn, his attorney, to deliver his lands to James Hambleton. Witnesses: John Daughtie, Thomas Clarke, John Woodde, Thomas Harison and Humphrey Goodwyn. Endorsed: note that on 27 January the lands were delivered to James Hambleton by Humphrey Goodwyn, in the presence of William Ferme, William Halle, Arthur Balle, Thomas Hambleton, George Hambleton, with signature of Humphrey Goodwyn.
